Questionnaire For Identifying Potential Reinforcers

Below are questions which will help identify potential reinforcers for use with children and adolescents. These questions may be presented to a child who can read in the form of a written questionnaire, or they may be given orally to a child who is a non-reader. Some of the questions may be inappropriate for some situations, and may be omitted.

Who is your favorite grown-up? What do you like to do with him/her?

Who is your favorite adult at school?

What is the best reward anyone can give you?

What would you buy if you had $5.00 to spend on anything you wanted?

List 2 things you like to do the best.

Name something you would really like to do.

If you did well at school, what could the teacher give you for your good work?

List your top 2 favorite TV programs.

What activity in school is the most fun for you?

What are your favorite games?
What are the jobs at home that you like to do the most?

List your top 3 favorite stories.

If you had 15 minutes of free time each day to do anything you wanted, what would you do?

List your top 3 favorite things to eat or drink.

What are your favorite sports?

Do you like to build things? If so, what do you like to build?

What are your favorite computer games?

Circle the following items that you would like the teacher to give you for good work and/or good behavior:

- Stickers
- Candy
- Work Puzzle
- Free Time
- Watch Video
- Talk to a Friend
- Play board game
- Popcorn
- Write on Board
- Snack
- Leader in Line
- Call Home